BIOGRAPHIC SKETCH ON GENERAL REINHARD GEHLEN

REPRODUCED AT THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES

General Reinhard Gehlen is a professional military and intelligence officer. Until his retirement on 30 April 1968, he was President of the Bundesnachrichtendienst (BND), the West German Federal Intelligence Service, as well as chief of its predecessor organizations formed at the end of World War II.

General Gehlen was born 3 April 1902 in Erfurt. He currently lives in Berg on the Starnberg Lake near Munich. He finished his formal schooling in 1920 and entered the military service directly. He received his commission as second lieutenant in 1923 and served his initial tours of duty in the horse artillery. He married in 1931 and in 1935 he attended the War Academy in Berlin. At that time he held the rank of captain. By 1939 and shortly before the outbreak of World War II, he was promoted to major. He participated in the Polish campaign, but by 1940 he was transferred to a headquarters post. At that time he became an aid to General Halder, who was Chief of the General Staff. He was promoted to lieutenant colonel in 1941 and became chief of Frende Heere Ost in 1942. (Frende Heere Ost /Foreign Armies East/ was that section of the German High Command charged with responsibility for charting the enemy order of battle on the eastern front. It was essentially an evaluation unit and worked closely with the Abwehr. It did engage in line crossing operations as the war progressed, however.) Gehlen received his promotion to colonel soon after taking over Frende Heere Ost and by 1944 was promoted to brigadier general. In the course of preparing estimates on enemy order of battle, he reached the conclusion as early as 1943 that the German cause on the eastern front was lost, and his continued pessimistic evaluations led to a reprimand from Hitler. and in the last days of the war he was relieved of command by order of Hitler. Long before that day General Gehlen had already consulted with senior members of his staff and made plans to continue their efforts against the Russians after the inevitable capitulation of the German Army, but in cooperation with the American Army, General Gehlen consequently cached his files in the Bavarian Alps and withdrew to that area in the final days of the war. He subsequently surrendered to the Americans, and after his initial POW debriefings, he presented his plan for the continued collection of order of battle information of the Soviet Armies. General Gehlen was motivated by his strong view that the position of the Soviet Army so deep in Europe constituted a real threat to Western civilization. His views were so strong that he was able to convince his captors of these views. He was then flown back to Washington in 1946 for further debriefings, and the decision was made at the G-2 level to allow General Geblen to reform his unit and to permit him to engage in a collection effort against the Soviet Army in Eastern Europs. Some [were appropriated for this effort. General Gehlen succeeded in reforming his unit and retrieving most of his files. operated under G-2 sponsorship from 1946 until 1949 when CIA He assumed responsibility for the Gehlen organization as it was then known. From 1949 until 1956 General Geblen devoted his full energies to legalizing his organization as the West German Federal Intelligence Service. He achieved this goal in March 1956 and thereby became its first president. He became directly responsible to the Chancellor's officer. After legalization he strove to develop his organization into a world-wide intelligence service having collection capabilities and liaison on a world-wide basis. He has gone a long way toward accomplishing this goal.

As a personality General Gehlen still remains essentially a professional military officer in habits and attitudes though he never entered on active duty after World War II. He is, however, a lieutenant general in the reserve. At one time he was an accomplished horseman though he no longer permits himself this luxury, primarily because of time considerations. He is a family man and has four children. It is believed General Gehlen leads a quiet life outside of his official duties. In all things he is essentially conservative. He rarely entertains, and he does not drink. His English is fluent, and he is socially poised and very much at ease among senior American officials. Since his retirement he has been engaged in writing his memoirs and compiling a history of the BND.

General Gehlen was succeeded on 1 May 1968 by General Gerhard Wessel, his adjutant in Frende Heere Ost, who was instrumental in assisting in the formation of the Gehlen organization. Wessel has served with the BND, the West German Ministry of Defense, and the NATO Military Committee in Washington and Brussels.

SPECIFIC- Progress Report - ZIPPER Transfer to The Federal Republic

1. We have had an excellent opportunity to debrief Dr. HORN during his two day stay in Munich prior to his three week leave to Austria. The information received from him plus what we have learned from Drs. GRAU and GUMBEL (GLOBKE's Administrative and Financial experts studying ZIPPER), and recent discussions with UTILITY has given us a rather lucid picture of ZIPPER developments and progress to legalize themselves with the Bundesrepublic towards becoming the German Intelligence Service.

2. The team of GRAU and GUMBEL completed a three day visit on 18 July 1952. After an overall introduction by UTILITY the following subjects were discussed in detail:

- a. Personnel matters.
- Relationship and cooperation with other governmental Ъ. authorities.
- Cover and Legalization problems. C.
- Basic questions of financing and administrative d. handling.
- Accounting procedure. e.
- Budget planning. f.

Examination of financial matters. g.

Insurance matters. h.

4. After considering the problem of transfer from all points of view we have decided not to interfere or attempt to influence in their scheduled program. We have advised UTILITY to this effect to which he concurs. All concerned feel that our involvement may be considered as unwarranted interference in what is considered a basic internal national problem, and we might do more harm than good. We have given assurance of assistance when it may be required or necessary, and have asked UTILITY to keep us an courant with developments.

5. Finance Minister SCHAEFFER and Mr. BLANK have been officially I that he intends to integrate ZIPPER into the Federal briefed by \subset Republic under the jurisdiction of the Chancery as the centralized national intelligence service. It is considered that the above two individuals are the only ones who need know this for the present time, and specifically to assist in the financial and personnel planning. The only other members of the Bonn government officially involved and briefed are members of GLOBKE's office. _7 plans to brief the other Ministries and the Bundestag Committee after ratification of the treaties. Blank has also been advised by \subset \exists to visit the ZIPPER installation in the near future and to discuss mutual problems. We intend to spend sometime with BLANK during his visit here, and hope to get a clearer picture of the possible solutions to the complex personnel problem, particularly of the military slots confronting ZTPPER.

6. The actual transfer of ZIPPER does not appear complicated and is invisaged as follows:

B. Upon the effective date of the entry into force of the conventions, _ _ _ intends to publish a letter order announcing the establishment of a centralized national intelligence service under the Ghancellery. An executive order or appointment is not necessary since under German law, the Ohanceller may create or establish an organization under his jurisdiction which does not have executive powers. The Bundestag has no jurisdiction over such an establishment.

b. Following _____ acceptance the only other thing necessary is to receive governmental approval of the budget requirements for the intelligence service. The budget requirements need only be submitted to the Bundes Haushaltausschuss (Eudget Committee) for approval. Preparations for this are under way in the form of studies to be submitted by GRAU and COMBEL. _____ controls the Budget Committee since the CDU coalition controls 15 of the 21 votes and the SPD coalition has the remaining 9. Only a simple majority is necessary to carry a motion.

SUBJ: Former Nazi and SS Membership in ZIPPER

1. Over the years there have been numerous allegations made by various individuals and factions within the West German government to the effect that ZIPPER's ranks are heavily weighted with former Nazi and SS-types. In view of the fact that Naziism in the German Government appears no longer to be a problem of such primary concern, it would seem that a report dealing with the incidence of these elements within ZIPPER might well be made at this time by way offinalizing the matter.

2. Study of POB'S ______ files which contain background data on nearly 600 ZIPPERites (about half of the known total of ZIPPER membership) reveal 76 ZIPPERites known to have been either former SS, SD, SA members, NSDAP members, War Crime offenders and/or a combination of same. The 76 who fall into the above category represent about 13% of the ZIPPERites whose background is known to us.

3. It will be remembered \square That UTILITY gave us a copy of a chart used in his presentation before the EDC Parliamentary Committee, 11 Dec 53, to show the extent and number of former SS andSD personnel within the ZIPPER complex. A summary of these figures, which we considered a farily accurate statement of the facts (since copies of ZIPPER personnel statistics are on file in \square office), show that of 1102 ZIPPERites, 51 are either former Waffen Ss and/or Allgemeine SS and SD. For comparison's sake:

UTILITY figures of SS, SD & SA

51 out of 1102 ZIPPERites = 5% POB Figures of SS, SD,& SA

50 out of 600 ZIPPERites = 8% checked

From the above comparison we see that POB's records show only a 3% higher incidence of SS, SD and SA-types than did UTILITY's statement. In fact, from a review of our findings we find nothing to seriously refute ZIPPER's claims "that in terms of SS and SD percentage they are better off than most \square \square ministries."

4. By way of further comparison it is interesting to note figures recently compiled by \square \square Bonn from Berlin Documents Center records which show that the present Bundestag has 129 or 26.5% former NSDAP members. UTILITY in a memo dated 8 March 1950 to \square \square stated that:

"Of all full time coworkers of the staffs of our organization

(including District Agencies), 28 percent of the 785 coworkers

in question were former members of the NSDAP." We may consider UTILITY's 28 percent figure to be a fairly conservative one in view of the fact that ______ study _____ shows up only 13% ZIPPERites in all former Nazi categories.

Former Teneral, Rheinhardt GERLEN, who served in Hitler's General Staff as Chiaf of the Department of Foreign Araies reportedly currently heads a recret organization in West Cornany which evaluated intelligence from the Sect. When the Hitler arcios collapsed in 1965, Geblon is said to have accaped weatward with most of the secret/filler of his department. He ellegedly kept in his control many of the top secret lists of Gorman agents planted in the Soviet Union and the sastern noighbor states which subsequently because Boviet sateliiles. He supposedly had the key to the espionege network built by Ceneric, Nisalar and Schellenberg. The Inericans reportedly took him prisoner but not for long because inerican intelligence oblets reportedly became very impreseed by his ideas and his documentation which be was able to put at their disposal. They are said to have set him up in an office and permitted him to pick a small staff of ex-Absehr officers (Cen. Canaria Intellisence Service) most of whom were equipped with good anti-Hasi records. Within a few weske Gehlon was providing excellent reports on Soviet allitary and political activitics in the estern sond and was subsequently permitted to expand his staff and his scope of activities. As he expanded, however, many Maxis, SS man and SD men erept into his premination where they enjoyed fall protection.

A key intelligence report of Hovesber 1948 states that Gehlen's organization maintains 15 to 16 outer listening posts along the borders of the Russian occupied zone while the organization itself is composed of between 30 and 40 General Staff officers and 50 to 60 other officers. 2/

The danger of Schlan's organization lies in the future. It has already become en incomes underground power in Germany and has key men in all German Covernment offices, in the police, newspapers, radio stations, etc. His organization has even penetrated the Ademausr Government's Office for the Protection of the Constitution (deemed the secret police office). 1/ Gehlen has been suggested for a position with this office, according to coveral reports. 3/ 4/ In any event for the present, his network is only using its underground power to expand its influence still father, get its member in strategic positions, and cover ex-Maxis and SS men from any persecution.

Oshlen himself is reportedly not ambitious for political power. (He is however listed as a member of the Bruderschait) of 5/ Hie hope supposedly is to become the Intalligence chief of the European irmy. BIOGRAPHIC SKETCH ON GENERAL REINHARD GEHLEN

General Reinhard Gehlen is President of the West German Federal Intelligence Service. (BND).

May 1965

Born 3 April 1902 in Erfurt, Germany, he finished his formal schooling in 1920 and entered military service directly, receiving his commission in 1923. Attending the War Academy in Berlin in 1936, he became a major in 1939, _ a brigadier general in 1944.

In charge of Foreign Armies-East in 1943, he came to believe the German cause on the Eastern front was lost. Reprimanded by Hitler for his negative opinions, he was ultimately dismissed toward the War's end. After caching his files in Bavaria, he surrendered to the Americans.

Reforming his unit, General Gehlen operated under G-2 auspices from 1946 until 1949 when CIA assumed sponsorship. The Gehlen Organization was legalized as the West German Service in March 1956.

General Gehlen has expanded his activities to the point that his organization has been accepted as a worldwide service. Expected to retire within the next two or three years, he lives quietly with his wife in Berg on the Starnberg Lake near Munich. He speaks good English.

Dear Mr. Helms,

Not only the United States but also all cooperating Intelligence leaders in the West complain the death of the Honorable Mr. Allen Dulles who was for all of us a symbol of seriousness and honesty in our common efforts to work for a peaceful world. It is not accidental that in the past in order to avoid his name in written documents we used the cover name "The Gentleman". He always proved to be not only an outstanding American official but also a friend of Germany. During all the years I admired his foresight, his experience and his broadmindedness. So I will always remember this great man as representative of the American intelligence effort during a long time. We participate in your grief.

Sincerely yours

R. Julula

Dear Mr. Helms,

REINHARD GEHLEN

I want to thank you very much for your kind birthday letter and your birthday congratulations which were forwarded to me by Heinz Herre. It was very kind of you to remember this day in spite of the pressure of your work. I can imagine that during the last months the working conditions have been and still are difficult for your service and for yourself. My thoughts and those of my friends are with you, wishing you good success.

Again just under the present circum stances I remember with gratitude our agreeable cooperation.

With best wishes and regards to you and Mrs. Helms, also from my wife,

Sincerely,

R. Jullen

Sefton Delmer's Articles on Gehlen in the Sunday Telegraph

1. These two articles are subtly and maliciously slanted, either as a result of British distaste for German militarists or a more sinister intent to serve Communist ends. Here are a few examples:

a. Delmer says that at the end of the war Gehlen was "in command of all anti-Soviet operations". He wasn't. He was in command of German military intelligence against the USSR. Then as now, he was mainly concerned with 'CB.

b. "For his own work had shown him that OSS had not even begun to function in the Soviet Union" (by the end of the war). True, it had not. But there is a nasty implication here that Gehlen had been busily at work against the OSS and had been so successful that he knew what it was doing and what it wasn't.

c. "For most of that first conversation Gehlen was examining General / Patterson, not Patterson Gehlen. " Here Delmer is describing Gehlen's first postwar contact with U.S. intelligence. How does he know? He wasn't there. The invention is in line with Delmer's consistent attempt to show Gehlen as very clever and very sinister.

d. "And it was in Washington that Gehlen made his allimportant deal - the deal which was the dream of Himmler and Schellenberg, the deal which enabled him to revive a section of Hitler's General Staff and lay the foundation of German rearmament at a time when such rearmament was still anathema.... " This is distorted and vicious. Gehlen laid the foundation for postwar German intelligence, not the General Staff or armaments.

e. "For not only was he able to turn his unit into a shadow of German General Staff but more important still he was now in a position to supply the Americans with the kind of intelligence which would make them feel that it was essential to recreate the German Army to help in the defence of Europe against the Russians." The same twist is evident here. Some of Gehlen's key people were and are officers; others were not. The model on which the organization was fashioned was, naturally, the FHO (Fremde Heere Ost) of the OKW, not the General Staff itself. And Gehlen's product was not diabolically altered to pit us against the Soviets or to lay the groundwork for the remilitarization of Germany. Here and elsewhere, Delmer portrays the Americans as the naive dupes of the subtle, scheming Gehlen.

f. Delmer also charges that Gehlen's organization recruited many former SD and Gestapo members. This is an old Communist canard. Most of Gehlen's people were straight G-2 types, a few were Abwehr, but very few were SD or Gestapo, precisely because Gehlen knew he could not afford them politically - and also because these types were looked upon with distaste by the professional officer class.

g. The second article starts, 'Berlin remains the main battlefield in the war between the two rival gangs of Hitler's former Secret Service men." The main lie here is the assumption of moral - on immoral - equality between East and West. This lie is basic to Communist propaganda. Another lie is the "Hitler's Secret Service men" - i.e., SD and Gestapo, as noted above. As a matter of fact, some of Gehlen's key people were part of the military plot against Hitler.

2. The two articles are, in effect, mischievous. Their net effect is to render a service to the East, not the West.

SUBJECT: Biographic Sketch of General Reinhard GEHLEN

1. General GEHLEN is the President of the West German Federal Intelligence Service. He has held this position since 31 March 1956 when the predecessor organization became legalized. During the postwar period and prior to that time General GEHLEN headed the private intelligence organization which bore his name before becoming the present West German Federal Intelligence Service.

2. General GEHIEN was born 3 April 1902 in Erfurt and was educated in Breslau. He entered the military service in 1920 and was commissioned in 1923. His first service was in the horse cavalry. In 1935 he attended the War Academy and subsequently became a General Staff Corps officer. He was a battery commander at the outbreak of World War II and was almost immediately promoted to the rank of Major. He filled a number of staff assignments coming in close contact with Generals HALDER and HEUSINGER. By 1942, he was placed in command of Fremde Herre Ost which was roughly the German equivalent of American G-2 intelligence operations on the German East front. He was a colonel at this time and was soon promoted to Generalmajor. His unit had both an operational and an analysis function regarding Soviet Army order of battle on the East front. He aroused the ire of Hitler as early as 1943 when during the course of an order of battle briefing for Hitler it was implied the German Army was facing defeat. Nevertheless his organization continued to function effectively during the remainder of the war under Ceneral Staff Corps protection at the time when the Abwehr disintegrated. By the time the general military situation began to disintegrate, GEHIEN made plans with several of his senior officers to withdraw with the files for the purpose of caching them in Bavaria. Basic plans were also laid for recontacting key personnel after the inevitable surrender in event a continuation of their work were possible.

3. In May 1945 and from a hideout in Bavaria, General GEHLEN surrendered to the United States Army. During the course of his interrogation he chose to reveal his ideas and plans for a continuation of his work. He and certain of his coworkers were sent to Camp Richey for a more detailed interrogation and a decision was made at the G-2 level to return General GEHLEN to Germany and allow him to rebuild his organization under G-2 responsibility. His organization was first located in Oberursel and later in Pullach. In 1948, CIA was requested to look into the GEHLEN Organization with a view to making a decision to take it over. By 1949, the decision was made and Pullach Operations Base was created to conduct liaison with the German organization and assist them as necessary. CEHLEN worked during this period to preserve the integrity of his organization from American control so that it would be politically acceptable to Bonn at the proper time. The essential American position was that of holding the

5. General GEHIEN is married and has three daughters and a son ranging in age from the late teens to the mid twenties. One of his daughters is married to his Bonn office representative. General GEHIEN appears to enjoy relatively good health despite a gall bladder or liver condition. He does not drink nor smoke. It is expected that he will continue in his present position for several more years before he chooses to retire. He lives in a house on Lake Starnberg some ten miles south of Munich. He lives there in as inconspicuous a manner as possible as is his characteristic of conduct of official matters. 5.

Dear General Geblen,

I wish to extend to you on the occasion of your sixticth birthday my sincere congratulations. A real silestone has been reached and with my congratulations I send best wishes for your good health and continued success. I look back with great pleasure on our meetings during the past years and the opportunity they afforded for us to reasw our friendship and I trust the future will afford us similar occasions.
